READ ABOUT SOME OF OUR YOUTH PROGRAMS KIDS & STAFF!

Meet Caleb!

So, Caleb, tell me what it's like to be a Military Kid.

"It's fun. It's nice having a bunch of people who are like you in a bunch of ways."

Tell me something you love to do with your family.

"Well, sometimes play board games, and we'll go to the skate park a bunch."

What is your dream job?

"I want to be like a robotics engineer."

Let's get to know Mia!

What is your favorite thing about coming to this Youth Center?

"I like it because it has some activities that I really like."

What are some activities you do?

"Yesterday, we were painting a flower pot. It's blue and purple. We're gonna take them home, and my mom has, like, some seeds, so, we're gonna put them in my flower pot, and they're going to grow."

What would your dream job be?

"A Vet. Because my tia was a vet and she helps animals."

Hello Rabia!

Who is the funniest staff member here at the Youth Center?

"I think most of the people are funny and they make me laugh."

What's your favorite thing to do in the playground?

"I like to go in the sand and play with the stuff. And then I like to go on the playground and the slides are my thing."

what it's like for you to be a Military Kid?

"It's fun being one. And I like the friends that are here."

Meet Mrs. Tiffany!

What does Month of the Military Child mean to you?

"The Month of the Military Child is a time to honor children's strength and resilience. It's about recognizing the sacrifices they make, celebrating their courage, and appreciating how they adapt and grow through the unique challenges of military life."

What made you start working in these youth programs?

"Great question! I first discovered my love for working with kids in high school while working at a daycare. After my husband joined the Air Force, I found my way into CYP, and it's been such a rewarding journey ever since. And here I am, many moons later, still loving what I do!"

Meet Mr. Houston!

What is your secret talent?

"Believe it or not, I can cook. Like, I can really cook. I really enjoy it, and I use it as a way to express art, you know? With aesthetic food presentation."

Why did you decide to work at youth programs?

"I grew up in the youth center. I was a youth center kid just like you. I came up through school age and in the teen program, too. And I had a "Mr. Houston" in the program, and I wanted to be that or you guys. That's the career path I chose. And here we are 16 years later."

Meet Mrs. Jessica!

Why did you decide to work at Youth Programs?

"I decided because I have two children at home and I thoroughly enjoy hanging out with them. So I figured I can use my time and spend with other children and help further their education."

What does a Month of the Military Child mean to you?

"It means the resilience. It's the children who aren't always the ones that come first. We're going to have children whose parents are leaving for different work trips and they're having to be here and stay with the other parent and miss their parent. Whoever's gone."

LUKE AFB MILITARY YOUTH OF THE YEAR

An Opportunity to Champion a Future Leader

I am writing to introduce you to an exceptional young leader from our community, Aria Walker. A 9th-grade student and member of the Luke Air Force Base Youth Program, Aria has been selected as the 2026 Luke AFB Military Youth of the Year. This prestigious honor is a testament to her character, leadership, and dedication.

The Military Youth of the Year program is a premier recognition initiative by the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, celebrating the achievements of military-connected youth. This program acknowledges young individuals who demonstrate outstanding leadership, service, academic excellence, and a commitment to a healthy lifestyle.

Aria's Journey of Growth and Potential

This is a new and exciting chapter for Aria. Being part of the Youth Program has already been a transformative experience, fostering her personal growth. She is eager to embrace the responsibilities of her new role and is excited about the opportunity to learn more about herself and her capabilities.

On April 14th, Aria will represent Luke AFB at the state-level competition, vying for the title of Arizona's Military Youth of the Year. This is a significant opportunity for her to connect with other military youth, share experiences, and learn from her peers. She is enthusiastic about this next step and the potential it holds for her future.

We believe Aria has the potential to go far, and with your support, we can help her on her journey.

READ SOME POETRY FROM YOUR MILITARY KIDS!

Neveah Easterling,
3/10/2026

I am a military kid,
which means I have lived in many states/houses.
I have said goodbye more than 4 times.
Sometimes I feel sad
when my parent has to go away.
But I also feel happy
because I know it's for a good cause.
Home is not just a place in one place.
It can be more than one.
It is the sound of traveling,
the smell of different smells,
and the feeling of doing new things.
I have learned how to make friends
even when we move alot.
I know how to make friends by having fun and talking,
and I stay strong by being happy.
Being a military kid means being able to travel and knowing your parent is doing good things and being helpful.
When people ask me what it's like, I say it is like sad and exciting because they go away sometimes and their doing it for a good cause.
I may move from state/house to state/house,
but I carry being a military kid with me wherever I go.
I am proud to be a military kid because my parents are doing this to help and protect us.
And that is what it means to be me.

I am a military child
Which means I have lived in many states.
I have said goodbye more than usual.
Sometimes I feel sad when my parent has to go on a work trip.
But I also feel happy because I know they are trying to provide for the family.
Home is not just a place in Arizona
It is sound of people having fun the smell of food and the feeling of love.
I have learned how to be a military child even when I'm sad.
I know how to make friends by being helpful and respectful.
And I stay strong by making new friends.
Being a military child means being a veteran.
When people ask what it's like, I say it's like a superpower because I feel special I may move from sad to happy, but I carry memory's with me wherever I go.
I am proud to be a military child because it's like a superpower.
And that is what it means to me.

-Carter Easterling
Age: 8

I am a military kid,
which means I have lived in Arizona
I have said goodbye more times than two Sometimes I feel pretty sad when my parent has to move
But I also feel excited because I know he will be home for dinner Home is not just a place in Luke AFB it is the sound of my sisters laugh the smell of food and the feeling of relaxing
I have learned how to ride a bike even when I ask my mom
I know how to make friends by asking to play and I stay strong by making jokes with siblings
Being a military kid means being brave and smart and friendly
When people ask me what it's like I say it is like making new friends because it is fun
I may move from - House to house
but I carry my dad's LOVE with me wherever I go
I am proud to be a military kid because I'm respectful.
And that is what it means to be me.

"I Am a Military Kid"
I Warren am a military kid, which means I have lived in Colorado, Georgia and Arizona
I have said goodbye more times than one
Sometimes I feel sad
when my parent has to deploy
But I also feel Happy
because I know she's going to be a staff sergeant.
Home is not just a place in Arizona it is the sound of music the smell of Hawaii and the feeling of Calming
I have learned how to add two digit numbers even when I'm not at school
I know how to make friends by playing and stay strong by always remembering my mom
Being a military kid means being intell and active and strong
When people ask me what it's like, I say it is like feeling good because my mom protects me.
I may move from Colorado
- to Arizona
but I carry my mom
with me wherever go.
I am proud to be a military kid because I am strong
And that is what it means to be me.
